Magisterra Soloists is a bold new Canada-based chamber ensemble which unites a kaleidoscope of artists from across the globe, under the direction of acclaimed German violinist, Annette-Barbara Vogel. Magisterra engages a broad and vibrant repertoire ranging from known masterworks to new and commissioned works by Canadian composers. In tandem with their performance schedule, the members of the ensemble passionately dedicate their time to bringing music to young people through outreach concerts and educational programs.

The ensemble will celebrate its international debut in 2016 during its inaugural tour to Brazil.
